

PARNELL A GROOM.

His Wedding with Mrs. O'Shea Occurred This Morning.

The Quiet Marriage Ceremony Performed at Steyning.

Whither Mr. Parnell Drove from Brighton at an Early Hour.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LONDON, June 25.—It is reported at Brighton that Mr. Parnell was married to-day to Mrs. O'Shea.

Mr. Parnell's phantom, driven by a coachman in livery, drove to the residence of Mr. Parnell at an early hour, and shortly afterwards Mr. Parnell, carefully dressed, entered the carriage and was driven in the direction of Steyning.

Up to noon Mr. Parnell had not returned to his residence. The local registrar refused to furnish any information as to whether or not Mr. Parnell had married.

LATER—4 P. M.—Everything tends to confirm that report that Mr. Parnell was married to-day to Mrs. O'Shea.

That lady joined Mr. Parnell while the latter was en route to Steyning, at which place they were seen together during the afternoon.

The vicar of the parish of Steyning denies that Mr. Parnell and Mrs. O'Shea were married at his church, but says they could be married at any one of the half dozen other churches in the district.

THE REGISTRAR VINDICATED.

5 P. M.—There appears to be no longer any doubt that Mr. Parnell was married to Mrs. O'Shea this morning, and that he and his bride started for parts unknown immediately after the marriage at Steyning.

The registrar of that place, together with the books used to record marriages, has vanished.

It is believed that the registrar has been bribed to hide himself and to keep the books concealed for the present.

THIS SAYS HE IS MARRIED.

(LONDON CARLETON NEWS SERVICE.)

BRIGHTON, June 25.—The long expected marriage of Mr. Charles Stewart Parnell, and Mrs. O'Shea, the divorced wife of Capt. O'Shea, took place this morning at Steyning, Sussex, a village lying five miles back from the Channel.

The ceremony was as unostentatious as possible, the principals having driven over from here at an early hour.

Capt. William Henry O'Shea brought suit for divorce in the latter part of December, 1889, making Charles Stewart Parnell the respondent.

The trial was the sensation of the day, both in Europe and on this side of the water, and Parnell's connection with it precipitated the now existing split in the Irish National party.

The news of Capt. O'Shea's action, though a surprise to the world at large, was declared to be none to those behind the scenes. The relations between Parnell and Mrs. O'Shea were declared to have long been talked of.

O'Shea's first appearance on the political surface was in 1885, when he captained a returned to Parliament, and it was no secret that he obtained his seat through the instrumentality of Parnell.

His advent was not received without opposition, and he subsequently resigned his seat. Later on, Capt. O'Shea appeared as a witness against Parnell in the divorce proceedings, but his testimony, however, did not carry much weight.

Advice was granted to O'Shea on Nov. 17, 1890, and a decree for the partition was entered against Parnell. The custody of the young O'Shea children was awarded to the captain.

Since that time there have been numerous rumors as to the marriage of Parnell and Mrs. O'Shea.

When Mrs. O'Shea Used Mr. Henry Campbell's Name.

(LONDON CARLETON NEWS SERVICE.)

LONDON, June 25.—With reference to certain testimony in the suit for libel brought by Mr. Henry Campbell, M. P., Mr. Parnell's private secretary, against the proprietors of the York Herald, Mr. Parnell writes to the papers as follows:

"As to the denial of Mr. Campbell that he had given any one a right to use his name, I recall the fact that he did give me such authority five years ago for the purpose of renting a house at Eastbourne, and that Mrs. O'Shea conducted the correspondence at my request."

"My object in concealing my identity was through fear of failure in securing the house or being made the victim of extortion."

FUERST BISMARCK A FLYER.

She Beats the Record From Here to Southampton.

LONDON, June 25.—The steamship Fuerst Bismarck, which left New York last Wednesday, crossing the bar at 4.30 p. m., passed the Needles, Southampton, at 10.40 this morning, thus making the passage in six days, thirteen hours and ten minutes.

Quitting sixteen hours for time between Queenstown and Southampton makes it five days, twenty-one hours, ten minutes, which is the fastest eastward passage.

WAS HE KILLED BY MISTAKE?

Theory That William Kendall Was Taken for a Penian Spy.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

CINCINNATI, June 25.—A morning paper proposes the theory that William Kendall, of Newport, Ky., whose dead body was found in the Ohio River a week ago, was killed in a mistake similar to that by which Dr. Crook met his fate, only that Kendall was mistaken for the intended victim, M. J. Upton, an artist. The man given is said to be a former Penian, suspected of being a spy.

COL. THOMAS FITZGERALD DEAD.

Former New York Newspaper Man, Who Founded Philadelphia's "Item."

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

Important Conference of National Democratic Committeemen.

A conference of such importance that it set many political tongues wagging to-day, was held at the Manhattan Club last evening.

The conference was United States Senator Brice, of Ohio, Chairman of the National Democratic Committee; United States Senator McKim, of Maryland, Chairman of the National Democratic Executive Committee; Col. Daniel S. Lamont, the ex-private secretary of ex-President Cleveland, and J. J. Hill, of St. Paul.

So important was the conference that Col. Lamont was summoned by telegraph from his country retreat at McGrawville to attend it.

The surmises which were ventured to-day as to the cause for this meeting of big politicians, and what they discussed or concluded to do, were many and varied; but all agreed that a question of the National policy of the Democratic party was considered.

Col. Lamont's presence was construed as meaning that ex-President Cleveland's views were to be consulted as those of a Presidential candidate whose candidacy might depend on the matter under discussion.

Senator Brice is said to have endeavored to lead the conference to a discussion of the National Convention, and he was expected to look after and in Ohio on his return to Cleveland, which is not content with the very possible way to achieve success in the coming State campaigns.

The plan for holding the next Democratic National Convention is also said to have been discussed. Mr. Hill's mission here was to urge Col. Lamont to return to Cleveland, but with the World's Fair in 1893, but wants the Convention twelve months hence.

Big H to Tammany's Harmony.

Major Grant, Commissioner Gilroy, Police Commissioner Martin and ex-Congressman Bourke secured the Big Four, who have been accused of conspiracy to oust Richard Croker from the management of Tammany Hall's affairs, have disclaimed any such design, and deny the making of any effort to displace Croker.

This was done at a meeting of the Tammany Committee of Twenty-four last evening at the Hotel Hamilton, and the committee members declared that the rumors of a plot to displace Croker were entirely unfounded.

Major Grant's disclaimers were contained in a letter which he characterized statements to the effect that he and Mr. Croker were in the best of terms, and that he was not in the least interested in the removal of Croker from the management of Tammany Hall's affairs.

The other members of the committee also declared that they were not interested in the removal of Croker from the management of Tammany Hall's affairs, and that they were in the best of terms with him.

BRIBERY AT ESSEX MARKET.

Lawyer Levine Makes Sworn Charges Against Police Court Officials.

The Accused Men Deny His Statements in Detail.

Lawyer Levine, of 233 Broadway, brings serious charges against three officers, attaches of the Essex Market Police Court.

He makes affidavit that about a year ago, as counsel for a complainant in a prosecution for criminal libel against G. M. Sullivan, he secured the services of the Essex Market Police Court officials, and that he paid them a bribe of $1,000 to secure a verdict in his favor.

Mr. Levine says that Thomas Blinn, Clerk of the Court, asked him "what it was worth" to draw the complaint, and accepted $100 for performing that duty; that Sergeant Sullivan, who had secured the complaint, served after a clock; that only last month, after Justice Meade had accepted $100 as a bribe, he had accepted $100 for one of Levine's clients charged with criminal libel, the clerk at the desk demanded and received $5 for drawing up the bond, and in short, that the Essex Market Police Court officials were guilty of extortion right and left.
